Importance: High

Dear Tom and Dave,

I hope you had a nice weekend. I had hoped to find the rest of the queries in my inbox when I logged on this morning.

I have another email from Shikha this morning, and Wiley has contractual right to proceed if the delays are undue. This could result in the publication of inaccuracies, which we want to avoid (obviously). Please send along your responses to the queries today.

Very much appreciated!
All the best,
Jen
